New York, August 19th.—The Turf, Field and Farm says that Bonner paid Vanderpool $50,000 for Maud S. If Jay-Ee-See was the time of Maud S., then Bonner

[SECOND SPOTLIGHT]
ATOKA, August 19.—The Associated Press has been told by a newspaperman that an interview with even-aged Vanderbilt. The latter said he disposed of Maud S, but would not discuss the consideration was. However, he did go to Robert Bonner. Vanderbilt further said he had disposed of her for the reason that he had so much time to drive her himself. His large stable of horses would fill all his time. At all events the mare will not be in the turf, except for exhibition purposes as she will most probably be sent to the Bonner's stable in due fall to be mated with one of his celebrated stallions purchased by J. E. Seelye, but there is no truth in the report. Vanderbilt further said he had received from parties, whose names he did not mention, to purchase Maud S. for a considerably larger sum than he had taken for the mare, but not wish to sell her to them, as she was not a favorite of his, and he could not sell her for a price which he could not get for her in any way. He stated that he would not sell her if he were to sell her, as she would be retired as queen of steeplechasing, and in this his wish will stand.

(THIRD DISPATCH.)

Yves, August 19th.—R. Bert Bonaid to a reporter to-night that he kept the mare for a few days for his purposes, and then would send her to the fair at Danvers, where he thought he would give public exhibitions for her, to show what she can do in beating her own record of 2:02. He believed that she would win, and he intended to satisfy himself as to that, and would never allow Maud S. to trot for a prize, or even for a prize. If Jay-Eve-

He did not enter into any disagreement with Mr. Vanderbilt and Mand S. out of matches. He guesses that the reason he and the Bonners will be sure that he (Bonner) would think of that kind. Bonner now three of the seven trotters who have been received in succession, viz: Dexaritis and Mand S.
